Run No. 2084 Thrown out of the Garden of Eden.

Preamble :

As your Scribe arrived at Eden Hill, Bloo was chatting to a Lady in a little Purple Car. Turns out he was getting the ok to park in the area. However, permission was soon rescinded when "I'm Michael, who are you?" turned up on his tready. I'm guessing his surname was Hunt.

He claimed to be the Caretaker and announced that we were on Private (Church) Property. I'm not a Churchgoer but be buggared if I'd frequent one that didn't welcome visitors.

Bloo pointed out that there was no signage to say it was Private Property but Adolf was unmoved.

We decamped to the Carpark next door and bade him a fond farewell.

The Run / Walk :

We headed off across Morley Drive for a tour of Korbosky Park before hitting the streets. Some I recall were Kerwin, Diana, Arbon and Rosher Road. We did a circuit around Rosher Park and headed over to Lord Street before turning for Home via Morley Drive and Gallagher Street. All up we were out for 55 minutes.

The Rundown:

Comments from Orig., Pyro and Fitzall were invited and all thought that it was a Good Run. Orig. also said that it was well-set although he got lost. He gave it 8.9. Pyro acknowledged that the Pack stayed together and felt 8.5 was deserved less .1 for every dog that barked at us. This had the potential to take the score into the minus category. Fitzall was more realistic and gave it 7.2. The GM pondered all this and came up with an 8 for New Territory and for the fact that he rather liked it.

Prick of the Week :

Alias as Acting VM anointed Bloo for upsetting the Caretaker and Pastor.

Charges :

Alias charged Orig. for putting away the Book and Cash Tin before he arrived. The RA reversed it. DD Alias.

The GM charged Fitzall for derogatory comments about him during the Run. DD Fitzall.

General Business :

Fitzall suggested that the GM Email the Run Spreadsheets to those yet to update their Run Stats. Motion carried.

It was decided to grace the Craigie Tavern next Tuesday in lieu of the now defunct Palace Run.

Pyro raised the issue of the Jennacubbine Weekend and 6 or 7 indicated a willingness to attend with Partners. Diesel said he was unable to attend. Should be plenty of Salad Bar for the rest of us as a result.

Worthy winners were Woolies (love that alliteration), Fitzall and Alias.
