Run No. 2085. Clayton's Run in Craigie

Preamble :

The Auspices were Inauspicious and your Scribe was more than a little intrigued, upon arrival, at the sight of Diesel's Vehicle complete with a couple of Eskys sitting forlorn in the back carpark. Boywonder appeared at about 6.05 and together we contemplated the situation. Perhaps he's gone out to set a bit of a Trail. Suddenly, a vision, in the shape of Orig. wandered out of the Pub and advised that Diesel was at the Bar and planned to remain for the Chase the Ace Draw at 6.30. Buggar those who fancied a heart-starter. Eventually he graced us with his presence with 5 minutes to the off. Alias boosted the Pack to 5. Diesel advised that Pyro would be along later.

The Run / Walk :

On the stroke of 6.30, Alias took charge, in the absence of the GM, and suggested that we go for a stroll around the block. The majority concurred, the only alternative being to hit the Pub, and off we trotted. 5 minutes in and Alias gets a call from the GM wanting to know where everybody was. Turns out that he'd taken it upon himself to set but had got lost and was therefore late back. We decided to carry on whilst he entertained the Bar Staff.

The Rundown:

The Tuesday night Special was Curry and a Pint of Coors for $15. There were 3 choices of Curry. Buttered Chicken, Beef or Thai Chicken. The GM, Diesel and Boywonder opted for the Beef, Orig. and Fitzall had the Thai and Alias, who'd eaten there before, went for a Steak.

Just as the GM was reaching for his Wallet, Alias beat him to the punch and bought everyone a Pre-Dinner Beer.

By 9 O'clock we'd given up on Pyro and decamped.
