Run No. 2090 - What a Cheek

Preamble:

The Sydney Cheek Pavilion venue evoked fond memories for those who attended Blank's nearby Run early last year. The rest of us thought it was bloody cold. Viagra put in his first appearance since the AGM and was warmly welcomed by the assembled throng. At the appointed hour we numbered 10 and RooTed sent us off with a simple "the On is where you came in".

The Run / Walk:

The early going entailed a series of twists and turns via Arbordale, Rosedale, Evandale and Grovedale Streets. A number of cunning Checks and Falsies kept us on our toes but pretty well together for the most part. A couple of decent slogs up-hill focused the mind and caused your scribe to lose his bearings.

We eventually headed West and after crossing Brookdale did a tour of the new Development which featured a series of upmarket Apartments.

From there it was onto Alderbury where Fitzall and Bloo smelt the Bucket and headed Home while the rest stuck to Trail and came in 10 minutes or so behind.

The Rundown:

Viagra reckoned that it was a good Run despite some long stretches between Checks/Falsies and awarded a 7. Diesel concurred but wanted more Falsies. He scored it 7.5. Bloo said that it was a good Run and gave it a 7. The GM pondered this and came up with 7.3.

Prick of the Week:

Blank admitted he was bereft of ideas and finally fell on his sword in awarding the appendage to himself.

Charges:

Bloo charged Blank with dereliction of duty relative to the awarding of said Prick and the motion carried despite a protest from Blank who thinks half a Mug of Splash will cause you to blow over 0.5.

Viagra charged Bloo for allegedly blaming Blank for his missing the last bit of the Run. Charge reversed.

Visitors / Returnees:

Viagra was given a drink as a Returnee.

General Business:

Fitzall offered to follow up on directions for next week. See Hareline.

Diesel reported that given the costs associated with buying JDs the Committee needs to contemplate a price rise.
