Preamble:

It was our turn to host the West Coast Lads and a good roll up from Bully (12) and West Coast (7) made for a Pack of 19. Bloo greeted me with the news that the Hare was out on his treading setting a Trail for the walkers having done one for the runners the previous day.

When the Hare finally appeared, having been out for an hour and a half, he advised that there was a Drink Stop and that the walkers were to split Trail when faced with a "W" sign.

The GM's idea of joining a "Meet Group" on the internet to broaden our target audience bore immediate fruit as a potential new member in Grant made an appearance.

The Run:

Blank and Viagra elected to join the runners and Diesel offered to mind the camp while the GM organised the Drink Stop. This left a potential crew of 8 to do the walk. Alias retired early having jetlag after Kulin and Orig. stayed with him to ensure he didn't get lost on the return to the bucket. Grant also tossed it in early and was soon followed by Ethel and Elvis

Suddenly we were down to 3 and Bloo, Boydwonder and Fitzall soldiered on. Well, we did until we met the aforementioned "W". This involved the walkers going left only to encounter a false almost immediately. The logic behind this was lost on Bloo as the only alternative was to rejoin the runners. After a quick confab we decided to give it the arse.

Upon returning, Bloo vented his spleen at the GM (or was it a fart?) over the cockup but failed to get a satisfactory explanation.

The Rundown:

The Runners were invited to give a critique of the Run and comments were generally favourable.

POW:

Blank anointed Bloo for what I can't remember.

Charges:

These related mainly to misdemeanours on the Run. Elvis had a go at the Scribe for an anomaly in the Rag but Bloo reversed the charge.

General Business:

Diesel reported that the restaurant was booked for 6.00pm on the 14th October and advised that we had a choice of a Smorgasbord or an A La Carte menu.

The venue is The Little Lebanon, 200 Main Street, Osborne Park. Club to provide drinks.

Raffle:

Winners were Diesel, Blank and Fitzall among others.

Song:

The GM lead the Bully Boys and then we joined the West Coast Crew in a rendition of their song.
