Run No. 2111 – Fitzall attracts a Crowd.

Preamble:

The Pack numbers were boosted by an influx of visitors and returnees who had got wind of the fact that La Fitz was putting on a Beef Curry. Poor misguided Fitzall thought they were there for the Run.

Great to see an ex-GM in Ayatollah (who now answers to Unco), Concord and Dikvan (who have gone over to the dark side, Cougar (who has a new bitch), Halfway (a Hamersley stalwart), Hippo (a Cervantes Host) and Gasman (The Raconteur) come along.

The Run:

The brief spoke of chalk, footpaths and kerbs. There were numerous cunning falsies and checks and too many hills for Elvis' liking. Comments were generally favourable although Concord was under a cloud for leading some astray on a forage in the scrub.

Blank arrived 3 minutes late and later claimed that he gave the Pack a ten-minute start but still managed to come in first. Elvis later tried to charge him with racing but to no avail.

The Rundown:

The Hare was called to account and comments invited. Pyro, Bloo and Dikvan stepped up and scores of 8.2, 7.0 and 7.7 were on offer. The GM gave it a 7.8.

POW:

Scott phuccall to do with Hash, just brothers in a pissing contest. One Scott (Blank) had a go at another (Concord) for derogatory comments towards him.

Charges:

The RA charged Concord for not removing his cap when having his Down Down as POW.
Elvis had a go at the VM for Racing. Reversed.
Ayatollah tried one on Wanker but it was reversed.
Cougar pinged Diesel for calling him Concord.
It was pay-back time as Halfway charged Wanker for putting him on ice in Chiang Mai.
Wanker got a cold arse.
Buoyed by his success, Halfway next eye-balled Gasman for his part in the above. Reversed.
Undeterred, he then charged Diesel for not wearing Hash Gear at a recent Hamersley Lunch.
The real charge should have been for attending the Hamersley Lunch!

Visitors/Returnees:

Wanker, Unco (aka Ayatollah), Cougar, Concord, Dikvan, Hippo, Gasman and Halfway.
