Run 2124 Harriettes' Annual Blue Dress Run @ Fremantle

Preamble:

For a short while it looked like I was going to be the sole representative of Bullsbrook Hash at this austere event. Fortunately, I spotted Ninja, which meant Elvis must be hiding amongst the crowd (no mean feat for someone of his girth). Soon Orig turned up with the eskies of drinks on ice and then like a dog looking for a bitch on heat, Elvis appeared. In the end we had a fair representation of seven members and one dog at the run.

At approx. 6:45pm Camel called the rabble to order. After a brief talk from Shorty about a fundraiser for Motor Neurone Disease, the pack was sent off with the promise of a drink stop.

The Run:

Around the streets of Fremantle we went, lots of false trails. A happier pack to wander a bout the streets it would be hard to find with the exception of some moaning from a certain (unnamed) Hashman from Perth, who did not know what a false trail was. Something to do with one true trail. Whatever the phuck that is. Depite being out for an hour and following trail, the pack failed to find the promised drink stop.

4.52 Km Duration 1:00:42

The Rundown:

The usual noisy circle was formed by most present with the notable exception of a lot of Hash Persons in blue Tee shirts, who sat on their arses and failed to move from their seats at the burger bar. Drinks were awarded for the usual reasons and charges which could not be heard above the cacophony of noise.

The GM's were called into the circle for a drink and because our RA was too shy to go out the front and represent Bullsbrook, the task fell upon your lowly scribe. Eventually we sang our song with the assistance of those wonderful lads from West Coast.
