Run 2125 Pyro @ Seacrest Park Sorrento

Preamble:

The usual motley crew gathered in the car park of location # 8, exchange the usual unpleasantries until 6:30. Eager to get the run started the Hare harassed the GM about the start time, only to be rebuffed and advised that all time keeping was done from the GM's chronometer. It seems that this piece of equipment is far more accurate than the atomic clock at Greenwich from which all the earth's time is taken. When the GM did call Pyro for details of the run, he informed the pack that he had intended to set a run and had even enlisted the assistance of JJ in the matter. However, due to a partial amputation of his leg courtesy of Pyro's dermatologist, this plan had been abandoned. We were given instructions on the easiest walk to Smoo Boulevard and that there would be a drink stop at the MAAC carpark. Those that wished to be adventurous or needed some more exercise could take the long way home.

The Run:

Straight down Hocking Parade onto Smoo Boulevard (with a most notable lack of Smoo) and onto the drink stop. From this point all but Tampax and Boydwunder went straight back home. The two that chose the long way home meandered through the back streets of Sorrento for another 45 minutes before returning to the bucket.

Duration 1:15 Distance 5.59 km

The Rundown:

Prior to Tampax and Boydwunder's return JJ and Orig were despatched to buy Fish and Chips for mash. The blind leading the demented. This may explain why there was concern about mash ever turning up. Fortunately, the dynamic duo returned and the GM called the circle.

The comments were positive, dolphins spotted everyone except Blank (who commented on the sun rise) enjoyed the sun set over the ocean. The GM decided that seeming as no one had got lost, but was not impressed by the lack of Smoo awarded he run 7.0
