Run 2126 - West Coast @ Yokine

Preamble:

I arrived at the dot of 18:25 expecting to find some Bully miscreant hanging around the trailer due to a sore head, bung knee or some other ailment and the pack waiting to head off. Alas this was not so, both the West Coast and Bully trailers were locked up tighter than Diesel's wallet, no West Coast or Bully members (including our own GM) were present. This I found rather interesting considering that at our last joint that the GM was unimpressed about the "early start" and was adamant that we start at 6:30. Oh how traditions can change in a mere seven weeks.

The Run:

Needless to say, I would not have a clue what happened on the run. Duke enjoyed a run around the Coolbinia Reserve and socialising with the many other dogs running loose.

The Rundown:

Bloo on behalf of all extended the Club's condolences to Alias on the death of his father.

Point was asked to express his opinion on the runs and showed his true colours, by advising he had taken into account that the RA had set the run. He further commented on the area being interesting, the run was well marked and made good use of the territory. Score – 9.85
