Run 2140 – Blank the Master Setter @ Gwelup

Preamble:

It's six o'clock on a Monday
The regular crowd shuffles in
There's an old man sitting next to me
Trying to make the money work

He says, "Son, can you tell me your name
I'm not really sure what it is
But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it complete
When I wore a younger man's clothes

La la la, di da da
La la, di da da da dum

Sing us a song, you're a hash man
Sing us a song tonight
Well, we're all in the mood for a melody
And we're feelin' alright

Now Blank at the trailer isn't a friend of mine
He doesn't get me my drinks for free
And he's slow with a joke but not to tell you how to set a run
But there's someplace that he'd rather be
He says, " Boydwonder, I believe this is killing me"
As the smile ran away from his face
"Well I'm sure that I could be a Hash star
If I went over to West Coast"

Oh, la la la, di da da
La la, di da da da dum

The Run Down:

Upon the return of the pack to the bucket, we were greeted by two ladies, who requested some information on who we were and what was the occasion. Alias, being the most eloquent club representative available at the time, was kind enough to explain about Hash and our ethos. The ladies after ingesting this information, informed Alias that were like a “Men’s Shed”, except we did not have a shed.

A circle was called and precis of the run were requested

Boydwunder – Well done 7.8

Rooted concurred and advised that he had enjoyed the excursion – 8.0

Elvis decided the run was belch worthy and proceeded to do so

The GM commented that the marks at the start were in the gutter and needed to get out. Otherwise it was a great run, the false trails kept the pack together and the checks kept the front runners thinking. – 7.0

Prick Of The Week:

Charges:

RA – Boydwunder: Giving the Hare the credit for the fine weather. It is the RA who provides the weather – Gully

RA – Tampax: Calling Duke back from the opposite side of a busy road, despite instructions from the RA not to

Tampax – Fitzall: Carrying a torch on the run for the first time ever

Diesel – Alias: Not calling the Orig & Diesel to the drink stop. Reversed
