Run 2141 –Pyro’s Twin Fitzall Deputises @ Warwick

Preamble:

The RA's got a bad reputation
I don't believe what they're sayin'
"There's a sky full of storm clouds
Boy, he'll only bring you rain"

What more can I say!

Early afternoon and I received a phone call from Alias that due to storms on the home front of the RA, there was a late change in the Hareline. This unfortunate situation necessitated a flurry of emails and text messages being sent out to let potential attendees know that due to the inclement weather and lack of shelter at the intended run site, Fitzall had generously offered to step in and offer the new Chez Fitzall to be the venue for this week's run. Despite the cold and miserable conditions, a grand total of 11 Hashmen turned up. Fitzall advised those present that no run had been set and if it had it probably would have been washed out anyway, so he would lead us through the streets of Warwick.

Have you seen the old men who walk the streets of Warwick
Torches in their hands and Hash shirts on their backs
There's plenty of time for talkin, and they just keeps right on walkin
Carryin their stubbies in big hands
Back at the trailer by a quarter past seven
Same old man sitting there on his own
Looking at the world over the rim of his beer bottle
Each run lasts an hour or two and then they goes home alon

(Apologies to Ralph McTell)

At the usual time of 6:30 the GM requested, the stand-in Hare to lead us out on the live run.

The Run

Out and into Willow Road and around the corner we went and noticed what was obviously Hamersley arrows on the kerbs. Not to be daunted by a lower class of Hashmen wandering the streets of Warwick, Fitzall took the pack down some of the darker back alleys of Warwick, one of which we encountered the aforesaid lower class of Hashmen. It was shortly after this that the heavens opened up and a rather wet pack decided that a lot drier and far more pleasant and drier surrounds could be found back at the bucket.

The Run Down:

Bloo thanked Fitzall for stepping up at such short notice and that it was an OK run until we stumbled across a group of Hamersley Hash miscreants running about the streets and therefore awarded the score of 7.0 for the evening's efforts

Prick Of The Week:

The On Sec / Social Sec was awarded the Phalanx for organising a Hash lunch at the only pub in Fremantle that does not serve lunch.
