Run 2148 - Blank The Master Trail Setter @ Carine

Preamble:

Fitzall had Man Flu, Pyro was still suffering from foot disease, Alias was catching up on work, so he could head off on holiday – again and Woolies seems to have gone Missing in Action. Therefore, we failed to make double digit numbers for the supposed run of the year (as foretold by Blank last week). West Coast boys were in attendance for what Blanks has been saying for the past year, would be his last run with Bullsbrook before transferring over to West Coast. At 6:10pm there was no sign of the Hare and all the West Coast runners were getting toey for their normal 6:15pm start. At 6:20 Blank turns up on his push bike and starts telling anyone that would listen (a total of zero), what a treat we were in for. The GM finally got sick of all the dribble coming from Blank and decided that the only way to shut him up was to ask for the run instructions. “You are in for a top run. There is chalk, flour and paper. There is a drink stop and both the runners and the walkers will arrive there together 43 minutes into the run. I am the only one who could set the run and manage this magnificent feat. The On is out and on the path.”

The Run

As foretold by Blank we knew that we were in for a treat as Blank is a bloody legend when it comes to setting runs (ask him) and so it proved to be. We enjoyed a 43minute tour of the Carine Reserve and its surrounds before coming across the drink stop. No sign of the runners though. When questioned the Hare advised that he had miscalculated the pace of the runners and that they had been and gone. This blew a huge hole in his declaration less than $\frac{3}{4}$ of an hour earlier that ” I am only one who could set the run and manage this magnificent feat of having the runners and walkers arrive at the drink stop together”. Not to be deterred, a fine drop of cold Green Ginger and Lemonade was consumed before the walkers heading out again. Another twelve minute of trail and we arrived back at the bucket to find the runners happily consuming cold beers around the trailers.

The Run Down:

The GM requested representatives from each club to give a considered opinion of the run.

Chiseller advised it was a "Text Book" run

Rooted commented "The expectations were high and it was not a bad run. The assertion that both the runners and walkers would arrive at the drink stop 43 or 44 minutes into the run, proved to be false."

The GM advised that he had not asked for scores for the run so decided that it was worth 7.0

Prick Of The Week:

The GM decided that no one had annoyed him this evening so there was no Phalanx awarded this evening.

Charges:

Due to the absence of our RA due to foot soreness, Chiseller acted as RA for both clubs.

Chiseller – self	Being absent for six weeks
AR - Basil Brush	Being late for the run
Elvis – Orig	Leaving the mugs & watering can out of the trailer
Dickvan – Diesel	Returning solar panels because he could not fathom how they work
RA – Nostrils	Falling asleep at a Hash Dinner
Basil Brush – Tampax	Improper scheduling of the joint runs

General business:

A show of hands was asked of West Coast members who were Blank's friends and supported his request of a transfer to West Coast. The motion was carried unanimously.
