Run 2149 – Tampax Finds Some New Territory @ Bull Creek

Preamble:

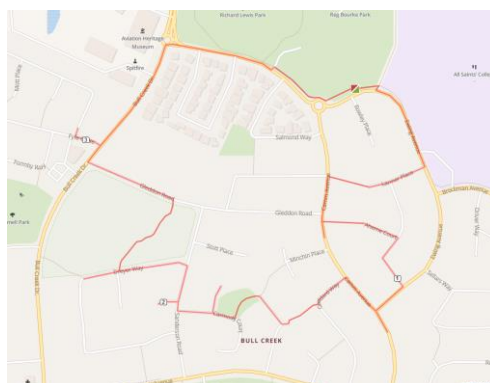

With the RA being absent and the skies starting to darken, there was the possibility that this week's run might be over before it even started. Fortunately, the RA's power over the weather is not entirely dependant upon his physical presence at the run site.

The Hare chose the run site close to the home of our founder and number 1 ticket holder Dog Lover. A phone call extending a personal invitation was made to make him aware of the location and ask for him to attend. This request was taken on board and Dog Lover attended briefly to greet Bloo and Fitzall who were parked waiting for the Hare to return from setting the run.

At the usual time the GM requested run instructions from Tampax for the other six attendees. "You are on chalk, on the footpath where there is one. In the case of no footpath the arrows are on the kerb and road, underneath street lights wherever possible. The on is up the hill in front of the school."

The Run

The trail went up along Ewing Ave, before heading into the centre of Bull Creek with a couple of false trails and checks thrown in. Then a loop back around to Ewing Ave prior to going back into the suburban centre finding a few alleyways to run along, The trail then proceeded in a southerly direction, before heading back towards Bull Creek Drive and then onto Camm Ave and home.

Distance: 3.9 Km Time: 00:48 Min

The Run Down:

Opinions were sought and offered from the following:

1. Orig - "Pretty good, new territory"
2. Rooted - "OK run and new territory"
3. Fitzall - "Good effort , new territory"

THE GM decided to offer a point for each attendee (except for Duke), therefore the score was 7.0

Prick Of The Week:

The GM decided that considering that the Phalanx was not available this evening, so it could not be awarded.
