Run 2160 Bloo @ Guilford

Preamble:

A turnout of 8 Bully Hashmen for the evening, which is all the regulars less Alias, who is in Melbourne and Pyro who is travelling or some other pathetic excuse. Your most illustrious On-sec hobbled in from the train station at 6:27 just as Fitzall was stowing the cash tin in the back of the troopy. Unfortunately, Tampax blew a fetlock on the short walk from the station to the bucket. The only concern shown was relief that the book had arrived and everyone present could sign in. Fitzall with complete empathy, theorised that Tampax should be renamed Joystick, because he always turned up three minutes before the start of the run.

After all present had signed the book, Bloo gave instructions for his run. It was on chalk, the arrows were Bullsbrook arrows and the pack were to ignore any Hamersley arrows (as we generally do for anything associated with Hamersley) and his checks were a "C" inside a circle. Nibbles would be Pea & Ham Soup, to be followed by an Egg & Cheese Burger lovingly prepared by Alfred's Kitchen. Thereafter the pack disappeared into the bowels of Guilford, with the Hare in close pursuit.

The Run

Due to being incapacitated with what turned out to be a fractured Metatarsal bone, I took no part in the run, therefore would have no idea of where it went or the terrain etc etc. I do know that the pack returned at 7:20 and the trail obviously went past Alfred's Kitchen, as they returned with the soup.

The Run Down:

In order to get Blank to shut up for more than 30 seconds, the GM appointed the "Master Setter" to solicit opinions of the run and ascertain a worthy score.

Boydwunder: Well set, plenty of chalk – 8.0
Orig: Good run when he was in the lead – 9.3
Fitzall: Best run of the year, deserves - 7.0

Blank then weighed up his options and decided, that the run was well set, was in virgin territory, kept the pack together and the checks were in the correct places – 7.0

Prick Of The Week:

N/A

Charges:

Elvis acting RA

Orig – Diesel: Keeping him waiting at Diesel’s house when he went to chauffer Diesel to the run despite assurances from Diesel he would be ready. Reversed it was Orig’s own fault for believing Diesel.

GM - Tampax: Inappropriate use of Hash property. The ice is meant to keep the beer cold, not for treating of a sore foot.

RA – Blank: Nearly causing Fitzall to have a heart attack, Blank reversed his ute in front of the Troopy.

GM – 5 other Hashmen that went on the run with him and did not take him in to any of the pubs for a drink.

Considering there were only two splashes left the GM reversed the charge.

RA – Diesel: Pouring to many drinks

General business:

The Christmas CBD Pub Crawl is now on the 17th December. Diesel would like to celebrate his 1500th run on the run and requested that West Coast join us on the night. Tampax will contact Lost to see if West Coast wish to swap the date of our next joint run.

There will be no Bullsbrook run on the 24th December. There may be a joint run between Christmas and New Year. Tampax will advise when and if any notification is received.
