Run No. 2172 – Fitzall's Folly

Preamble:

The Hare was back in harness after 3 weeks away at the Kiwi Nash Hash and what a blast it was. The Catering Officer (aka La Fitz) was keen to know numbers but Fitzall was unsure how many would rock up given his aforementioned sojourn. Finally settled on 10 which turned out to be spot on. The absence of a couple of stalwarts in Tampax and Woolies was commented upon and hopefully they'll put in an appearance sooner rather than later.

The Run:

Consisted of a tour of the streets and byways of Warwick and Hamersley and incorporated a lot of falsies and a Drink Stop but no checks. The pack were a little tardy it getting to the Drink Stop in the Hare's estimation and the Run went a smidge over the hour as a result. However, he dodged a bullet on this one as no mention of the fact was made in the Circle.

The Rundown:

Comments were sought from Boyd wonder who was fulsome in his praise and generous in awarding an 8; Alias thought that the Drink Stop should have been earlier in the Run but still managed a 7.9; RooTed was also impressed and gave it an 8; Bloo was not asked his opinion but interjected with a lament about the lack of Checks. The GM weighed all of this and came up with a 7.5.

POW:

From memory Wanker was the last to be presented with the appendage and no-one caught the RA's eye this week.

Charges:

Alias on Diesel for deserting the Pack after the Drink Stop and hitching a ride. The RA in his wisdom (?) reversed the charge for reasons that escaped the scribe and both drank.

The GM charged Diesel for pinching his seat as he also contemplated getting a ride after the Drink Stop. Down Down Diesel.

Orig. charged Diesel for calling him "Tony". DD Diesel.

General Business:

Fitzall reported on his recent attendance at Kiwi Nash Hash.

The question as to whether we continue to pay to insure the contents of the Trailer (it turns out that the Policy does not cover the Trailer itself) was discussed and a decision taken to relinquish said Policy.

Alias alluded to earlier discussions among the group which resulted in a plan to spin out the Hareline by building in a "Pub" or similar once a month. The Scribe duly noted the point.

The question of the next Friday Lunch was raised and it was left to the OnSec to come up with a date and a venue.

Raffle:

My recollection is that it was proposed to limit the Raffle to once a month. (?).
